SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY

The Pharr Memorial Library Children's Department Summer Reading Program will be open to children 12 years old and younger. Registration for the 2023 Summer Reading Program will be in person at the Pharr Memorial Library Children's Department. Children who read and review 20 age-appropriate books will be eligible for the Summer Reading Program Pool Party to be held on July 7, 2023.

Daily activities are separate from the Pharr Memorial Library Summer Reading Program. While participation in both the daily programs and the Summer Reading Program are encouraged, children do not have to be registered for the Summer Reading Program to participate in daily programs. Each class will be limited to 30 children. In-person registration for each class will be available at 9 a.m. each morning. Program registration will be done on a day-to-day basis. Seats will be filled on a first-come-first-serve basis. If you would like to register your child for a class that is full, you will be added to a waiting list. Children who register for one of the Pharr Memorial Library daily programs must be present at the Pharr Memorial Library at least 10 minutes before their class session begins. If a child is not present at the start of their class session, their seat will be given away to a member of the waiting list.

Classes will be held at the Pharr Memorial Library (PML) and the Development and Research Center (DRC). Please see calendar for each class location. Please call the Pharr Memorial Library at 956-402-4650 if you have any questions or concerns.
